

The introduction of LPFM stations under the Localism campaign should be done without displacing existing stations. In particular, our family listens to K-LOVE radio, which offers uplifting music without commercials. While K-LOVE may not be local to our area, its message is close to us no matter where the signal originates. Please make sure K-LOVE stays on the air - it keeps our airwave diverse and serves the San Diego community very well.